THE MESSAGE OF THE CEO

In today's dynamic, changing, risky, and competitive business environment, relying on old and traditional measures for customer satisfaction is no longer viable. A smart organization can only satisfy customers by offering innovative products. At AXIMER Ceramic, we believe that customer satisfaction with product quality is crucial for long-term success.

We focus on offering ceramic products with the latest technologies, consistently providing different and cutting-edge designs compared to ordinary tiles. Additionally, the matter of time, our pre- and post-sale services, and the treatment by our personnel are top priorities. These factors distinguish AXIMER in the market and enable us to provide customers with products on a timely delivery basis.

THE JOURNEY OF US

Embarking with a team of adept experts, Aximer, a Dubai-based enterprise, is unwavering in its commitment to elevate customers' taste and knowledge. Our mission transcends existing stereotypes, aiming to embody the extraordinary for the rest of the century. As a premier supplier of superior building materials that captivate with both design and quality across the UAE, Aximer has been a formidable presence in the competitive arenas of construction, trading, and industry since 2021. Our brand is diligently expanding its reach within the GCC, continually broadening our product portfolio.

MADE IN ITALY

We proudly collaborate with world-renowned ceramic manufacturers, particularly from Italy.

As the official representatives of SUPERGRES, a prestigious Italian brand with over 60 years of expertise in the ceramics industry, we bring unparalleled quality and innovation to our clients. Additionally, we represent FAMARELLA, an Italian brand specializing in decorative ceramics and bespoke designs, and SAIME, a distinguished Italian brand under the Atlas Concorde group, one of the largest manufacturers globally. Furthermore, we offer products from IMPERIO, a brand celebrated for its Spanish-inspired elegance.

In the world of interior design, ceramics play a pivotal role in shaping the character of spaces. At Aximer, we pride ourselves on being at the forefront of this artistic pursuit. With years of experience and an unwavering commitment to quality, we have positioned ourselves as experts in providing decorative ceramics.

Our strength lies not just in our expertise, but in the vastness of our collection. We understand the diverse needs of our clients and have curated the most comprehensive collection of decorative ceramics. From the minimalist to the ornate, from the traditional to the avant-garde, our range encapsulates the entirety of ceramic artistry. We offer an extensive variety of sizes and designs, ensuring that our ceramics meet the unique and varied tastes of our clientele.
